

Presents... Con†Stellation XXXII: Columba
Holiday Inn Express
Huntsville, Alabama

11-13 October 2013
P. O. Box 4857
Huntsville, AL 35815-4857

All of us in Huntsville would like to invite you to this year's Con†Stellation, Columba, the Dove.
Read on for some late-breaking details.

Chairman's Reception

This will occur on Friday evening in the Patriot Room and begins at 9pm. Shmooze with us and eat great food. Sample the elegant goodies that our excellent ConSuite staff has prepared for your culinary delight.

Meet the guests and come eat stuff!

Programming

This year Con†stellation features some of the brightest luminaries working in SF today, so we're planning some diverse programs for you. There will be Slide Shows, science-filled and behind-the-scenes-of-fiction panels, too. We'll also keep you busy with Author Readings, Kandyklatsches, and other interesting stuff, and don't forget two of our most popular events, the Art Auction and our Round Table on Sunday. We promise a fun experience. Come mix and mingle with all our great guests, and bring your friends.

KandyKlasches

Perhaps you've been to a KaffeeKlatsch at a convention before? If not, the short definition is a gathering with a convention guest and a small group of fans, drinking coffee (or tea, or...) and chatting.

In 2012 we put out our own spin on that; providing candy instead of coffee. Success! (Yes, there is strategy involved—you might be ill advised to put a piece of toffee in your mouth just before you want to ask a question.) So we're bringing back KandyKlasches at Con†Stellation XXXII.

You will have to sign up at the convention for these Saturday events. There will be a limit on how many KandyKlatsch each convention member can sign up for, and a limit of eight people in each KandyKlatsch. Details of signup (including times available) will be available at the convention. Signup will be at convention registration during special hours to be posted at the con.

Gaming

We plan a full track of RPGs, the lookup schedule PDF is on line at our web site Con-stellation.org. Look for Open Tables in the room schedule and plan to play a game or two from Craig's Closet. Please sign up now for any RPG games you wish to play or run by contacting our gamemaster@con-stellation.org. You can bring your own games to our open tables; we want you to have lots of fun. See you at the Con!

ARTEMIS

ARTEMIS, the spaceship bridge simulator, is coming to Con†stellation! Each person in the 6 man crew has a specific assignment from Captain to Engineering. Everyone, except the captain, has their own workstation to carry out their tasks. Hopefully, your crew succeeds in their mission. Many thanks to the crew of PlayOnCon for hosting this event.

Costume Contest

Con†Stellation had a "traditional" Masquerade on Saturday evening for most of its existence, but it's become harder for anything other than really large cons to effectively stage one.

Our answer has been a Hall Costume Contest... but one with a twist that will benefit our chosen charity. What to do is simple; wear your favorite costume—be it simple or complex—any time Friday or most of Saturday at the convention. Have your picture taken; you can bring us one of yours or we'll take one for you.

Encourage everyone to vote for you by putting their donation in your designated drop. We'll declare a winner Saturday evening at the Art Auction based on who raises the most money for charity.

Where to Find More Details

Check your Pocket Program & Area Guide for times and locations. Here are some highlights: GoH Speeches & Ceremonies are currently scheduled for 3:00 pm Saturday to allow time after for a nosh or a nibble for us all before the Art Auction begins. We'll have a preliminary schedule shortly so please see the website for all those details.

How To Get There

You can get to the hotel from several directions. Take Exit 17 from I-565 to Jordan Lane, travel North (left) to University Drive, turn East (right) & look for the Holiday Inn Express sign on the North (left) side of the road. The hotel entrance is just past the concrete divider on University Drive, see the map on our flyer.

By our special request, David O. Miller has made available this re-imagined design of 4 prior years' tee shirts as a unified image. We sold several last year, we make them available this year as well. A tote bag you will want to hold on to and use throughout the year is in your future.

These two handled totes are 15" tall x 14" 1/2 wide x 3" deep and priced to sell. The only decision you have to make is how many you want.

Imagine the tote in your hand.
Feel the weight of your possessions
being lifted as your spirit soars.
