

January 2022 NASFA Minutes

by Steve Sloan

The January meeting of the North Alabama Science Fiction Association was called to order on Saturday, January 22, 2022 in the Madison satellite location of Willowbrook Baptist Church at 6:14:41 PM by President Mary Lampert. The crickets refused to make a sound. Maybe they were too cold.

OLD BUSINESS

Dues were due.

NEW BUSINESS

Sam had a letter from Space Cowboy Books. Jim agreed to take it.

CON BUSINESS

Sam reported that DeepSouthCon 60 had signed Artist Guest Sam Kennedy.

Sam updated the DSC 60 website. He added a PayPal link allowing people to buy memberships. He added a hotel page, which was still glitchy, but it had a number allowing guests to call the hotel.

Sam bought a Huntsville city business license. Would he need a state license? The office told him no, but he should come back and pay the license after the event. [Actually, the state license has to be purchased as soon as possible on or after October 1st. – Sam]

Sam renewed the NASFA PO Box.

Judy told the club that Con Suite Goddess Regina was looking for volunteers. Do we need a similar name for Mike C.'s job title providing barbecue?

The hotel room rate is $159 plus $12 parking per night, but you can come and go without paying extra.

Do we need a LibertyCon room party? Sam will provide a budget.

Sam moved to adjourn at 6:24:22 PM.

Note that everyone at the January NASFA meeting had paid their club dues by the end of the meeting.

For the January program, Judy played two videos about science fiction. The After the Meeting Meeting was held at the same location as the meeting.
