

July 2022 NASFA Minutes

by Steve Sloan

The July meeting of the North Alabama Science Fiction Association was called to order on Saturday, July 16, 2022 in the Madison satellite location of Willowbrook Baptist Church at 6:09:43 PM by President Mary Lampert.

OLD BUSINESS

Dues were still due.

NEW BUSINESS

Programming Director Judy listed upcoming NASFA programs. In August, Josh Olive, owner of Haven Comics, will talk about what's going on in comics, and whatever else sounds interesting. September will be the annual NASFA auction, so bring out your junk! (And your wallet.) The October "program" will be DeepSouthCon 60.

Sam had some mail, mostly consisting of fanzines. "It's a Mike sort of thing. Whichever one." Sam handed the pile to Mike S.

Jenna said hello over the phone.

CON BUSINESS

Mike K. reported that DeepSouthCon 60 was still rocking along, with 62 registered memberships so far. A DSC 60 concom (convention committee meeting) was held over Zoom the previous Sunday, and the next one was scheduled for early August.

Sam had an appointment set up for August 2 with Wells Fargo to get everything set up to take credit cards at DSC 60.

As of the NASFA meeting, DSC 60 was only three months out.

Mike K. reported that Samanda Jeude, founder of Electrical Eggs, had passed away earlier in the month.

Sam moved to adjourn at 6:18:40 PM.

For the July program, Judy showed the video "JWST First Full-Color Pictures Explained", and a video with the James Webb Space Telescope's latest picture of Jupiter. The After the Meeting Meeting was held at the same location as the meeting.
