

The

Shuttle

April 2010

The Next NASFA Meeting is 17 April 2010 at the Regular Time and Location

Con†Stellation XXIX ConCom Meeting 3P, 17 April 2010 at Renasant Bank (right before the club meeting)

¡ Oyez, Oyez ¡

The next NASFA Meeting is Saturday 17 April 2010 at the regular time (6P) and the regular location. Meetings are at the Renasant Bank’s Community Room, 4245 Balmoral Drive in south Huntsville. Exit the Parkway at Airport Road; head east one short block to Balmoral Drive; turn left (north) for less than a block. The bank is on the right, just past Logan’s Roadhouse restaurant. Enter at the front door of the bank; turn right to the end of a short hallway.

MARCH PROGRAM

The April program will be “Darrell Osborn Talks about Creativity.”

ATMMs

The April After-The-Meeting Meeting will be at Sue Thorn’s house in Madison. Directions will be available at the meeting. We need ATMM volunteers for May and all months beyond.

CONCOM MEETINGS

The next Con†Stellation XXIX concom meeting will be 3P Sunday 17 April at the Renasant Bank. There will be a dinner break between the concom meeting and the club meeting. The plan is for future concom meetings to follow this same pattern until we get to the point of needing to hold them more often than monthly. (Except for May; see below.)

COOKOUT/PICNIC IN MAY

The More-or-Less-Annual NASFA Cookout/Picnic will be in May at Peggy Patrick’s house on the regular club meeting day. It’s expected to start at about 2P, though stay tuned. This will affect the concom meeting, normally scheduled for 3P that same day.

SHUTTLE TRANSITION—REDUX

Once again production of the Shuttle is undergoing a transition—this time forced by the death of one computer and the acquisition of its replacement. Things may be uneven for a while; please bear with us.

NASFA CALENDAR ONLINE

NASFA has an online calendar on Google. Interested parties can check the calendar online, but you can also subscribe to the calendar and have your Outlook, iCal, BlackBerry, or other calendar automatically updated as events (Club Meetings, Concom Meetings, local sf/f events) are added or changed.

Deadline for the May issue of The NASFA Shuttle is Friday, 30 April 2010

CUFF race. She'll be going to Keycon 27/Convention 30 <www.keycon.org>, to be held 21–23 May 2010 in Winnipeg.

LeAmber Raven Kensley, last year's CUFF delegate and the fund administrator, wrote online that she received 40 votes. She said it was a close race but voting totals were not available to the Shuttle at press time.

DUFF WINNER

The Down Under Fan Fund <sffanz.sf.org.nz/duff> sends fans between North America and Australasia, with this year's direction being north to south. This year's DUFF winner is John Hertz, though it took 4 rounds of "instant runoff" (preferential balloting) to arrive at that decision. Hertz will attend the Worldcon, Aussiecon 4, to be held in Melbourne 2–6 September. Vote totals (broken down by round) were:

John Hertz	48	49	54	73
John Purcell	30	32	36	47
Melanie Herz	24	25	32
Terry Fong and Jannie Shea	19	22
Jeffrey Boman	7

TREK THIS WAY TO THE SALE

Yet another round of Star Trek memorabilia went up for sale, this one of items from the former Las Vegas exhibit Star Trek: The Experience. About 1000 items from that show were offered in a "cash and carry warehouse sale" Saturday 10 April 2010. The seller's website <www.propworx.com> is not very specific, but does mention that some lots of what they have on hand will held for an auction in August. Press coverage of the April sale mentions such items as Picard's chair, Starfleet uniforms, a Borg alcove, and several models.

FAAn AWARDS

The 2010 FAAn Award winners were announced and presented at Corflu Cobalt <www.corflu.org>, the fanzine convention, in Winchester, England on 21 March 2010. The winners are:

- Best Fanzine Banana Wings (Claire Brialey and Mark Plummer)
- Best Fan Writer Claire Brialey
- Best Fan Artist Steve Stiles
- Best Letterhack (aka Harry Warner Memorial Award) Robert Lichtman
- Best Website eFanzines (Bill Burns)
- Lifetime Achievement Award Ted White
- Number One Fan Face Robert Lichtman
- Best New Fan Jacqueline Monahan of Las Vegas

In other Corflu news, D West was chosen Past President of FWA for 2009. Also, the 2011 Corflu will take place in Sunnyvale CA early in February. Chris Garcia and crew will host it at the Domain Hotel.

SFWA NON-NEBULA'S ANNOUNCED

The Science Fiction and Fantasy Writers of America <www.sfwaw.org> has announced winners of several awards distinct from their signature Nebula Awards. All will be resented during the 2010 Nebula Awards Weekend, to be held in Coco Beach FL, 13-16 May 2010.

Neal Barrett, Jr. has been made a SFWA Author Emeritus while Tom Doherty, Terri Windling, and Donald A. Wollheim have been named Solstice Award winners. (Per the SFWA website, the Solstice Award recognizes individuals "who have made a major difference to our field.") These are in addition to the SFWA Service Awards (Vonda N. McIntyre and Keith Stokes) and Damon Knight Grand Master (Joe Haldeman) previously announced.

March Minutes

by Steve Sloan, Secretary

The March meeting of the North Alabama Science Fiction Association was called to order on Saturday, March 20, 2010 in the Renasant Bank meeting room at 6:16:58P by President Mary Lampert. The traditional crickets managed to chirp to start the meeting, then Peggy played the MP3 cricket sound on her cell phone. The original crickets now have backup!

OLD BUSINESS

Three people still owe dues.

NEW BUSINESS

Jack had a list of potential books for the Bailey Cove Library Science Fiction Book Club to discuss in upcoming months, and passed it around to see the club members' opinions of the candidate books.

Sam presented some emails. There's a new Huntsville area events calendar for non-profits. They want to announce NASFA meetings, Con†Stellation, and other NASFA information. A German publisher wanting to edit and publish an early Willy Ley science fiction novel written in German wanted to contact Willy Ley's daughters for permission, and was wondering if NASFA knew anyone with contact information. Someone was selling SF prints of L. Ron Hubbard books. UAH will host a community expo 31 March from 10A to 2P at the University Center, and wondered if NASFA wanted to have a presence there. No interest was shown in the expo, and no motions were made.

CON BUSINESS

We have a hotel contract for Con†Stellation in 2010.

2011 Con†Stellation con chair Anita announced the name of the 2011 constellation: Corona Borealis, or the Northern Crown. She "needs a tiara" as con chair.

Con†Stellation XXX: Corona Borealis is scheduled for the same weekend as the 2010 Con†Stellation, the third weekend in September.

Sam moved to adjourn at 6:32:05P.

For programming, Dan Thompson presented more fan films. Sunn Hayward hosted the After-the-Meeting Meeting at the Renasant bank.

OoOoOoOoOoOoOoOoOoOoOoOoOoOoOoOoOoOoOo

The North Alabama Science Fiction Association meets on the third Saturday of each month. (Unless there is a large nearby convention being held that weekend—in which case we often move the meeting to the second or fourth weekend.) The regular meeting location is the Community Room at the Balmoral branch of Renasant Bank (off Airport Road, near the Parkway). The Executive Committee meeting (if scheduled) is at 5P. The business meeting is at 6P. The program is at 7P. Anyone is welcome to attend any of the meetings. There is usually an after-the-meeting meeting with directions available at the program.

Hugo and Campbell Noms

Nominees for the 2010 Hugo and Campbell Awards have been announced. The Hugos are awarded by the membership of the World Science Fiction Convention. The John W. Campbell Award for the Best New Writer is not a Hugo (its sponsored by Dell Magazines), but is administered by the Worldcon in the same fashion as the Hugos. This year’s Worldcon, Aussiecon 4, received a record number of Hugo nominations—864. This compares to 799 nomination ballots at Anticipation (Montreal) last year and 483 at Denvention 3 (Denver) in 2008.

Supporting and attending members of Aussiecon 4 are eligible to vote in the final round. Votes may be submitted online at <www.aussiecon4.org.au/hugoawards> or by paper ballots to be distributed in Progress Report 3. All ballots must be received by 31 July 2010 23:59 PDT. Winners will be announced at the

29 March 2010

Another Shuttle has docked here, the March edition, so here come some comments on what's been happening for the past month.

I hope to hear about Dan Thompson's presentation on fan films... I hope he was able to access the fan films the club in Montreal have worked on for years. They are a lot of fun, and extremely silly.

The 2012 Worldcon will mostly likely be in Chicago. Nothing against the bid, and I know many of the committee, but I have been to three Worldcons in Chicago, and I am not sure I'd want to go to a fourth. I expect it would be called Chicon VII... we will have to decide what we want to do. At this point, we have decided that Reno in 2011 will be our last Worldcon, but stranger things have happened.

Night of the Living Trekkies... I've spent some time in Trek fandom, and if I was to get this book, I am not sure if I would put it in my science fiction or reference section. I attended the newest Wizard World convention, in Toronto, this past weekend. I am not a fan of old actors, old wrestlers, anime, gaming or comics, so there wasn't much for me there, other than lots of old friends who were there, too. The old stereotype of fanboys sure has taken a beating... these stereotypes, if they are at the conventions at all, are in the minority. This show also had a lot of dads taking their kids out to see what's going on, and I could tell both were enjoying themselves.

You sure can tell, it's getting close to big awards season. The nomination lists sure take up those column inches. I won't complain too much, for there I am, the last name listed on the Aurora Award nomination list. There is also the Constellation Awards, sponsored by Polaris, the big media SF convention in Toronto. I don't nominate or vote for the Constellations because I haven't watched SF television in many years, and wouldn't know who the people are, or haven't seen the series. Check it out, I think it's open to Canadian fans only, not sure.

Sheryl Birkhead's letter proves that the more complex something is, the easier it can break down, and nothing proves that old adage more than computers do. Yvonne and I have been very lucky, but I think that a new computer will be in our future. Maybe that's what we'll save for in 2012 instead of the Worldcon. We are still on dial-up, too, but we will be examining costs for broadband.

The FAAn Awards from Winchester, England...

Best Fanzine—Banana Wings
Best Fan Writer—Claire Brialey
Best Fan Artist—Steve Stiles
Best Letterhack—Robert Lichtman
Best Fan Website—eFanzines
Best New Fanzine Fan—Jacqueline Monahan
Lifetime Achievement Award—Ted White
#1 Fan Face—Robert Lichtman

Basically done... just gotta wait for the Hugo nominations, and they will be announced at Eastercon in England. I hope there will be some pleasant surprises for many. So, until the next issue, We'll hope for the best. See you then.

[The fan films Dan showed were mostly "new episodes" of existing franchises (Star Trek, the various incarnations of Star-gate, etc.)—some parodies, some quite serious. I've forwarded your comment about the Montreal club's films and will put the two of you in touch if he's interested. I too have been to three Chicago Worldcons. Assuming they win (which seems likely given they are unopposed) I may well go to this one; though at present I really haven't thought much further ahead than Reno. Well, that's not entirely true—I'd certainly be tempted by 2014 in London should they prevail. -ED]
