Not-a-Con Activities

On Friday evening, in a tragic turn of events, the Yankees defeated the Astros.

On Saturday evening, Gurriel homered in the first, putting the Astros up 3-0, in the top of the second Sanchez drove in Gregorious against Opener Peacock to make it 3-1. Urshela had a solo shot in the fourth against long man Urquidy. In the sixth Altuve scored on a fielder's choice to make it 4-2. Top of the ninth Osuna gave up a two-run homer to LeMahieu to tie it up, but in the bottom of the ninth Altuve walked it off with a two-run homer off Chapman and the Evil Empire was defeated.

Also, there were talks and presentations and games at the hotel. Adam won the spades tournament.

My 2020 Campaign Speech (Part 7 of 8)

If you people can keep a schedule, you will have the election this month.

Note that the topic of this is Campaign Speech (Part 7 of 8), not part 7 of 7. This is because I have faith in your collective organizational abilities.

You people made me vice-president after all. With the same level of thoughtful thoroughness that results in three of the offices having no nominees.

Do not be a moron, vote for Not Doug for VP in 2020.
